SEPULVEDA, CALIFORNIA

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL

VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION CEREMONY

HOSPITAL THEATER

May 22, 1969

7:30 P.M.

A Message FROM THE HOSPITAL DIRECTOR

The Volunteers should be honored daily, but the privilege to cite them publicly only comes once a year in a ceremony that has become a tradition.

This year more than ever with all the changes that have already transpired and with even more progress in the offing, we need your support and understanding and we solicit your assistance.

On this particular occasion, it is our privilege to express our appreciation and gratitude for your continuing efforts and contributions.

Volunteers, we are proud to honor you; we commend you; we love you; we thank you.

R. G. St. Pierre

R. G. St. Pierre, M.D.
Hospital Director

A Message from the CHIEF OF STAFF

The Annual Volunteer Recognition Ceremony is an occasion to formally recognize individual volunteers as well as organizational groups for their service to the Veteran patient and to the hospital during the past and previous years.

It is a distinct honor and pleasure for me, on behalf of the entire professional staff, to thank each of you for your unselfish efforts and contributions to better patient care. I am confident that I also speak for our patients when I state that your services have been sincerely appreciated.

The awards presented tonight are meager and meaningless in themselves unless each recipient received some self-satisfaction daily from the realization that he or she is performing an essential and productive task as a volunteer. At times you may feel that your endeavors and accomplishments go unnoticed by patients and staff, however, I can assure you that gratitude, while not always expressed, possibly due to the pressures of illness or of work respectively, is present.
